SPEAK EASY

A One Reel Bulls Eyes Comedy....Featuring Charles Puffy..with Mildred June and Billy Engel

Puffy buys forty cents worth of expensive birthday gifts for his sweetheart, Mildred. Monte, his hated rival, tries to get the big packages away from Puffy by escorting him to the middle of the ~~street~~ crowded street, but is struck by a car while laughing at Puffy, who escapes, until he falls over a roller skate, just outside Mildred's door and the packages fly into ~~Max~~ the arms of Monte, who goes into the house and presents them to Mildred. Her father sees the ten cent label on a diamond ring and asks who bought it. Both Puffy and Monte claim the honor, and both are driven from the house by the father, who tells them that the first one who shows him a thousand dollars may have his daughter.

Monte steals the safe from the police department and agrees to split the swag if puffy will drive the car. The Flivver gets out of control and runs through a brick wall into the police office, where Puffy is paid $1,000 reward for the capture of Monte.

Puffy marries the girl but is prostrated with fear that the man he double-crossed will get him.. Monte escapes from prison and comes to Puffy disguised as a doctor, suggesting a long rest for the invalid in his sanitorium. With Puffy and Mildred in his car, he drives at a terrific speed. His cigar falls against the fuse of a bomb. The explosion blows Monte back into jail. Mildred and Puffy land on a hayrack in close embrace and he discovers that he had been cured by the fast ride.
